General Terms and Conditions of Sale & Services

1. These Terms

1.1. Scope: These General Terms and Conditions of Sale & Services ("GTC") of Hilti ČR spol. s r.o., registration no.: 416 93 132, VAT no: CZ41693132 with registered address: V Parku 2325/16 148 00 Praha, Česká republika (collectively "Hilti", "we", "us" or "our") apply to all our offers, quotations and contracts for the deliveries of our products (e.g. tools and consumables) and related services as described on our website www.hilti.cz. These terms also apply to advice or suggestions, including those we provide through our website. Essential information on product specifications, service scope and any relating limitations published at website www.hilti.cz form part of these GTC. If any conflicts arise, the present GTC take precedence, unless Hilti states otherwise in writing. References to "Customer", "you" or "your" all pertain to the buyer of our products and recipient of our services. Such a buyer or recipient is a self-employed individual or a legal entity acting within the scope of its commercial, business, or professional activities. In the absence of an express written request, Hilti considers persons employed by the Customer to be authorized to place orders. We reserve the right to change these GTC at any time, see section 14 below.

1.2. Special terms: Hilti special terms and conditions apply to specific solutions, such as Hilti software solutions and individually agreed sales and/or services contracts. In case of any conflict, these special terms and conditions will take precedence over these GTC.

1.3. Availability: The most recent version of our terms is available in our physical stores ("Hilti Stores"), through our Customer Service, your Account Manager, your Field Engineer and on our website www.hilti.cz.

2. Offers, Orders and Order Confirmations

2.1. Our offers: Our offers (including quotations and price agreements) are always non-binding and can be adjusted unless otherwise indicated. This includes all descriptive details such as specifications, advertising materials, samples, technical information, and illustrations found in our catalogues, brochures, or on our website.

2.2. Your order and acceptance of our GTC: When placing an order or service request with us, verbally, by phone, e-mail, other electronic messages or online, you accept these GTC as the only terms applicable to that order or service request. Hilti employees and sales representatives are not authorized to deviate from the terms and conditions set out in the GTC; any deviation from the General Terms and Conditions that is not signed by the persons listed in the Commercial Register as authorized to act on behalf of Hilti, or by persons acting pursuant to a written power of attorney from such persons, is invalid. Hilti expressly excludes the application of any Customer's terms and conditions, even if not expressly rejected.

2.3. Your registration and acceptance of our GTC: In addition to clause 2.2, when you register with us by creating or asking us to create a Hilti Customer Account, we assign you a customer number, creating a permanent business relationship. By registering, you accept these GTC apply as Framework GTC to all business dealings resulting from this relationship, including future offers, quotations and contracts, in the version current at the time of your registration. At the same time of registration, you confirm that you are authorized to represent the legal entity you act on behalf of. If it is determined that the representative is not authorised to represent the Customer, the representative shall be liable to compensate Hilti for any damages resulting from their actions, to the extent specified in the applicable laws. If not, your organization remains fully bound by any actions performed under the registered account. The management of your Hilti Customer Account (including ordering, payments and repair requests online) is your ultimate responsibility. This includes managing and controlling your legal entity's authorized ordering and payment processes, as well as managing and controlling the appropriate access rights and user roles. It also applies to any change your legal entity requests Hilti to implement in your Hilti Customer Account. You must ensure only your legal entity's authorized employees and users have the appropriate permissions to access, use, order and buy via your Hilti Customer Account and waive any right in connection with unauthorized representation.

2.4. Your confirmation: Our products and services are intended exclusively for professional use within Czech Republic. We do not sell to private consumers. By accepting these GTC, you confirm to be a professional end user, whether as an entrepreneur or as an individual authorized to act on behalf of a legal entity, using our products and services for professional purposes only.

2.5. Contract formation: You have a contract for an order with us once you receive our order confirmation or upon delivery of the ordered products or services - whichever occurs first.

2.6. Change, cancellation & returns: You may not change or cancel an order, or return delivered products, unless explicitly allowed by Hilti or unless stated otherwise in our Cancellation & Return policy available at our website.

2.7. Non-Catalog Product: Hilti may, at its sole discretion, agree to sell products not listed in Hilti's online product catalogue ("Non-Catalog Products"). Non-Catalog Products include any product, component, accessory, part, assembly or material that is not part of Hilti's standard online product catalogue at the time of order, including but not limited to standard products modified, adapted, coated, cut or otherwise processed for Customer-specific or project-specific requirements, as well as newly engineered, developed or manufactured products created for a specific Customer, project, application or technical requirement, even if such product has an item number or may technically be ordered again. For non-catalog items, the contract is formed when the Customer receives an order confirmation from Hilti. Once Hilti has accepted or confirmed an order for a Non-Catalog Product in writing or in other documentary form, the Customer may not cancel, withdraw from or modify that order without Hilti's prior consent. If the Customer cancels or purports to cancel the order without Hilti's consent, refuses or fails to take delivery, is in default of acceptance, or otherwise prevents or delays performance, the Customer shall pay Hilti the full purchase price of the relevant Non-Catalog Product. Hilti may also claim any damages, costs and losses exceeding the contractual penalty, including production, procurement, storage, handling, transport, return, disposal and legal costs, and may exercise all other rights and remedies available under the contract or applicable law.

3. Prices

3.1. Pricing: Your agreed prices as shown in your Hilti Customer Account apply to our products and services, otherwise the Hilti standard price list applies, always at the rate in effect on the date of the order. These prices are net (excluding statutory VAT, taxes and all other applicable duties), VAT will be added to the invoice according to the applicable law. Pricing may vary depending on quantities or combinations of items.

3.2. Adjustments: We reserve the right to adjust price before invoicing if the circumstances under which a contract is entered into have changed and the change results in material change in the balance of the obligations due to which cost for Hilti or the performance of an obligation increase significantly, including but not limited to changes in wages, costs of raw materials, materials, production, inflation or currency. We will inform you of any price changes. When you have accepted these GTC as Framework GTC, the same applies for any ongoing contracts you have with us since your registration.

4. Payment terms

4.1. Invoices: You must pay all your invoices within 14 calendar days from date of invoice, or if Hilti has agreed otherwise in writing. Unless otherwise stated on the quotation or invoice, you shall pay us immediately when you place an order with us. Payments must be made in full - without any deductions, withholding, sets-off or counterclaims - unless otherwise agreed for undisputed or legally established receivables. You must notify Hilti immediately of any invoice errors. Hilti reserves the right to change the payment terms (including method) from time to time.

4.2. Late payment: If you miss the payment deadline; you are in default and agree to pay all Hilti's costs related to collecting overdue payments. This includes interests, adjustments, and any other reasonable expenses such as legal and collection fees. The interest to be paid is at 0,4 % on any unpaid invoices daily. Payment of the contractual penalty does not affect the right to full compensation for damages.

4.3. Ownership: We retain ownership of the products until we receive your full payment (retention of title). You must handle the products with care, insure them against all risks, and you use them as intended. Untill full payment is made, you may not pledge, sell or transfer the products. If you fail to pay; we can reclaim the products without notice.

4.4. Payment difficulties: If you default on payment, stop making payments, initiate debt settlement, or insolvency proceedings have been initiated against you all amounts owed become immediately due. We may execute outstanding deliveries only against prepayment, suspend deliveries of products and services, offset claims, and/or terminate the contract without liability for compensation, while retaining our right to payment for deliveries and compensation for costs incurred.

5. Delivery of Products and Services

5.1. Place, Incoterms, costs and time of delivery: We deliver our products and services exclusively to addresses within Czech Republic and therefore cannot be held responsible for the marketability (including delivery) of the products and services outside of Czech Republic.. You designate the delivery address and for products, select the shipping method for the order according to available shipping options. Any stated dates for delivery, means business days. You pay the freight charges for the selected shipping method. We can decide on partial deliveries and any charges for urgent orders. In case of defects in partial deliveries, you are not entitled to cancel the remaining undelivered orders. Any additional logistics services fees will be added to your invoice. Freight charges and logistic fees are available at our website surcharges may apply depending on market conditions. Charges, fees and shipping method are subject to change. If no place of delivery and Incoterm (designating moment of transfer of risk) has been agreed upon, delivery shall be ex works (Incoterms 2010 – Hilti store in Czech), regardless of whether Hilti arranges the transportation. Unless delivery to your location was agreed, you are responsible for collecting the products at agreed Hilti store in Czech Republic.

5.2. General delivery conditions: Ensure a contact person is available, responsible for receiving the products and services to be rendered. You must give us and our subcontractors suitable and safe access to the delivery address/job site, ensuring sufficient and safe facilities are available on site to perform the delivery. Hilti is not liable for delays, waiting times or business interruptions due to unannounced site conditions. In case of any delivery issue due to the incorrect information provided by you, you shall bear the related additional shipping/delivery/other costs. You agree that ensuring safe environment for delivery is your obligation and lack of it is therefore breach of contract by you, meaning you are responsible for any injury or damage to Hilti's and Hilti's subcontractor personnel or property, except where caused by Hilti's or its subcontractors' gross negligence or willful misconduct.

5.3. Conditions rendering services: When requesting services at your premises, ensure Hilti personnel have safe, unobstructed access and necessary facilities. Ensure all required permissions, permits, and licenses are in place. You must make available adequate power, lighting, heating, and other necessary facilities, including storage space for the materials for the services. You are responsible for the site to be suitable, clear of hazards, and you must provide necessary facilities for Hilti's personnel to comply with relevant laws and Hilti's reasonable requirements. You are responsible for any injury or damage to Hilti personnel or property, except for Hilti's or subcontractors' negligence. Services are considered complete upon notice of completion or acceptance. Payment is also due when Hilti is ready to perform the services but is prevented from doing so because of your missing cooperation or your necessary assistance (e.g., unavailable test components or parts); the conditions at your premises or facilities at the agreed time; or your failure to meet contract obligations.

5.4. Delivery estimates: Delivery times are estimates and shall not be regarded as guaranteed delivery dates. You accept all risks associated with delays and will not suspend or terminate the contract. If delays occur beyond our control, delivery time will be extended. If we cannot deliver within a reasonable period due to lack of supply or Force Majeure, we may withdraw from the contract for undelivered items. Hilti is not liable for costs or damages caused by delays, nor provides refunds in such case.

5.5. Force Majeure:Hilti or you are not liable for any breach, non-performance or delay in performance of a contract caused by Force Majeure. "Force Majeure" means the occurrence of an event or circumstance that prevents or impedes one party from performing one or more of our contractual obligations to the other party, if and to the extent: (a) that such impediment is beyond the reasonable control of the affected party; and (b) that it could not reasonably have been foreseen at the time of our acceptance of your order of service request or if applicable at the time of your registration with us (see clause 2.3); and (c) that the effects of the impediment could not reasonably have been avoided or overcome by the affected party. Examples of Force Majeure include (i) war, hostilities, invasion, act of foreign enemies, extensive military mobilisation; (ii) civil war, riot, rebellion and revolution, military or usurped power, insurrection, act of terrorism, sabotage or piracy; (iii) currency and trade restriction, new or increased tariffs or customs requirements, embargo, sanction; (iv) act of authority whether lawful or unlawful, compliance with any law or governmental order, expropriation, seizure of works, requisition, nationalisation; (v) plague, epidemic, pandemic, unusual inclement weather, unfavorable weather conditions (whether foreseeable or not), act of God, floods, natural disaster or extreme natural event; (vi) explosion, fire, accident, destruction of equipment, prolonged breakdown of transport, telecommunication, information system or energy; (vii) general labour disturbance such as boycott, strike and lock-out, go-slow, occupation of factories and premises. Should Hilti be prevented from delivering the products or supplying the services as a result of Force Majeure, it shall be entitled to delay or cancel the supply of the services, delay or cancel delivery or to reduce the amount of the products to be delivered.

5.6. Your inspection obligation: Ensure a contact person is available, responsible to confirm and inspect the delivered products and services and any related invoices immediately upon receipt. Refuse and return damaged deliveries by the same carrier to sender as shown on the delivery notice or notify Hilti immediately for return instructions. Notify us of any defects or errors by registered letter or e-mail within undue delay, but no later than 5 calendar days of receipt, accurately itemizing and substantiating the defects or errors. Failure to notify within this period will be deemed acceptance of the products and services and you lose the right to make a complaint.

5.7. Export Control: You represent that you comply with applicable export control, customs and sanctions regulations ("Trade Compliance Laws"), including those of the European Union, Switzerland and other applicable jurisdictions. You must not sell, export, re-export, or transfer the products in violation of Trade Compliance Laws, and must ensure that equivalent obligations apply to subsequent purchasers or users. You represent that they are not a sanctioned party and are not majority owned or controlled by a sanctioned party. You are obliged to provide Hilti with all information required for compliance with such laws, including accurate information concerning the end-use, and promptly notify Hilti of potential breaches of Trade Compliance Laws. You will notify Hilti if its ownership or control changes or if you become a sanctioned party or become owned or controlled by one. You are obliged to indemnify and hold Hilti harmless from losses, fines, (third-party) claims, and costs (including attorney's fees) arising from their non-compliance, unless the competent authority or court rejects the claim. Hilti may suspend or terminate performance where required because of actual or suspected violations of Trade Compliance Laws. Hilti is not liable for resulting delays or losses.

6. Your Usage

6.1. Respecting compliance: Hilti products and services comply with all applicable regulations and standards in Czech Republic and detailed installation, and usage instructions are provided. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, our products and services are intended for use only within Czech Republic based on applicable technical and regulatory standards. When buying and using Hilti products and services, you are responsible for following all relevant laws, regulations, technical and construction standards, and providing us with accurate and complete information about your intended use. Hilti does not provide any installation or related supervisory services. Hilti is not liable to inspect nor to confirm that its products have been properly installed in accordance with operating instructions, state-of-the-art practices or other requirements. To the extent legally permissible, Hilti and its employees are not liable for any non-compliance in these areas or any failure to comply with any specific requirements from you or any third-party.

6.2. Decision-making: Any advice, recommendations, or information provided by Hilti regarding the use, fitting, suitability, or compatibility of our products and services are based on the best available information and are followed at your own risk. Before using our products or services, you are responsible to test and investigate these sufficiently to form an independent judgment if (a) our products or services are suitable and compatible for your intended use; (b) the required training for you and your employees fits your needs; (c) you can meet the required level of ongoing maintenance for the products; (d) the premises are adequate for the products and services to be used. Any advice, statements, information, or recommendations we provide to you free of charge is non-binding and only serve as an initial guidance. You remain responsible for verifying whether such non-binding advice is suitable for your intended use.

6.3. Critical usage: If products are critical for your continuous operations to run your business, ensure you have sufficient spare products in stock and in working conditions to avoid disruptions in your operations and efficiency of your production and services.

7. Warranty and guarantees

7.1. Contractual warranty Unless stated otherwise in this section, we warrant our products are free of defects in material or workmanship at the time of delivery. The customer is entitled to exercise their rights arising from such defects no later than 6 months from the date of delivery of the products; this does not affect the customer's obligation to inspect the products, report any defects discovered without undue delay, and file a written claim through customer service. Upon the expiration of the aforementioned period, the Customer's rights arising from defective performance shall expire. If the defect is confirmed and attributable to Hilti, we will within a reasonable period at our sole option and discretion (i) refund the purchase price and take back the product, (ii) repair the defect at no charge, or (iii) replace the product. For the avoidance of doubt and where applicable, Hilti will not be responsible for the costs of any dismantling, removal, reinstallation and/or transportation of the products. Services are performed on a commercially reasonable best-efforts basis. Submit a written complaint for non-conformity without undue delay, but no later than 5 days after discovery of the non-conformity. If the defect is confirmed and attributable to Hilti, we will (i) refund the service price or (ii) reperform the service. This warranty applies only to services performed on-site.

7.2. Hilti Tool Warranty In addition to (and not instead of) the warranty above Hilti gives an extra warranty to all our tools, except those listed as excluded on our website. You can find the list of excluded tools on our website, Hilti can exclude other tools for future purchases at any time, with the effect for tools delivered thereafter. We provide:

(a) "20-year-Free-of-Manufacturing-Defect Warranty repair or replacement of parts or the tool that break as a result of defects in materials or workmanship during the production of a tool for 20 years after the date of purchase. The warranty applies exclusively to proven and recognized manufacturing defects which are exclusively determined by Hilti. Related batteries and chargers are only eligible for replacement. If spare parts are unavailable, it is at Hilti's sole discretion whether to repair or replace the tool or refund the tool purchase price.

(b) "No Cost Coverage Period" for first 2 years or for duration specified in document "Repair limits" we provide free tool repairs, calculated from the date of purchase. This includes damage resulting from normal wear and tear, spare parts, labour and shipping. Certain consumable items are excluded from the No Cost Coverage Period service cost. The No Cost Coverage Period is not applicable for damage due to abuse, natural disasters or use not in accordance with Documentation or instructions.

(c) Repair Cost Cap: after the No Cost Coverage Period onwards, Hilti will repair defective tools based on its standard repair price list, but with a cost cap listed on Hilti website in document "Repair limits". If your tool needs another repair within 3 months of the paid repair, Hilti will not charge you the costs for the labor, parts and shipping. Hilti in its own discretion, may also choose to provide a new tool or refund the purchase price.

(d) Repair Turnaround 3 working days,. The 3 working days Turnaround is a promise, not a fixed delivery period or a guarantee. Any claims in case of longer repair periods or other circumstances causing delay (e.g. transportation) are excluded. Hilti is not liable for any damages or losses caused by delays in repair delivery (including those resulting from business interruption). The Repair Turnaround does not apply in case of Force Majeure, for tools specified on the website and quotations.

7.3. Warranties for inserts: We will replace your Hilti hammer drill bits TE YX Ultimate (SDS Max) and TE CX Ultimate (SDS Plus), as soon as the wear mark is visible. This offered replacement is regardless of whether the insert is damaged by normal use in the course of your ordinary business or damaged as a result of defects in materials or workmanship and is without admission of Hilti's liability. Further claims under our commercial warranties for our inserts are excluded, and Hilti is not liable for any other damages or losses (including business interruption). Your general warranty rights in case of product defects remain unaffected.

7.4. Warranty for Diamond consumables: Any Hilti DS-B diamond saw blades, DC-D diamond cutting discs, AC-D, AG-D abrasive inserts, DG-C diamond cup wheels and diamond core bits that are damaged as a result of defects in materials or workmanship, will be replaced free of charge. Further claims under our commercial warranties for our inserts are excluded, and Hilti is not liable for any other damages or losses (including business interruption). Your general warranty rights in case of product defects remain unaffected. Specific consumables warranty rules are available on Hilti website – Consumables Warranty.

7.5. Exclusions: The warranty and guarantees as provided in this section 7 do not apply if you have not fully paid for the product. The guarantee will also not apply, if the defect for which the guarantee is claimed has been caused: a) by acts or omissions by you, including but not limited to intentional damage, misuse, abnormal use or use in abnormal conditions, non-compliance with safety instructions or improper storage, handling, installation, maintenance, repair or application, non-compliance with the instructions, operation manuals and/or certificates provided orally or in writing to you by or on behalf of Hilti; b) by changes or modifications to the product other than those intended during normal use (including Hilti's approved self-repair for certain products); or c) by any incompatibility between the product and any other products, systems and parts not approved or produced by Hilti. In these circumstances, you will be liable for any resulting loss, damage or repair costs. Hilti may refuse to provide the services under the warranty and guarantees if the tool for which the guarantee is claimed has been reported to Hilti as stolen or lost. In such case, Hilti reserves the right to verify ownership. Hilti reserves the right not to offer the warranty and or provide service if these conditions are not met.

8. Our Repair Services

8.1. Scope: This section 8 applies to Hilti's repair services including Maintenance and Calibration Services and as published on Hilti website regardless of whether they are in-or-outside the warranty and guarantees as described in section 7. By submitting a request for repair or calibration services to Hilti, you agree to these terms under which the repair or calibration services will be conducted.

8.2. Your repair request: Use our online self-service area to quickly order repairs. Upon your repair request, we confirm per e-mail your request with a tracking link. Hilti at its discretion may offer you loaner tools. Products that has been knowingly used in areas containing asbestos or contaminated with hazardous substances as well as products that pose a fire hazard (eg. Damaged batteries) must not be returned to Hilti for any subsequent services (including repair). Such equipment must be handled and disposed of as hazardous waste in compliance with the applicable laws and regulations of the country where the equipment is located. You as customer are responsible for ensuring proper labeling, documentation and proof of compliant disposal. If such a product is returned, you will be fully liable for any resulting costs and damage. Hilti is under no obligation to accept, repair, or service these products and disclaims all liability and warranty. Hilti reserves the right to return such products at your cost and to seek indemnification for any damages or regulatory penalties incurred.

8.3. Submission and ownership: Once you submitted your product to Hilti or its agent for repair, Hilti retains a right of retention over the goods to secure all of its due and payable claims against the Customer, including repair costs; to secure claims not yet due, Hilti may exercise this right only in cases provided for by law (Section 1395(2) of the Civil Code). Hilti shall notify the Customer without undue delay of the retention of the goods and the reasons therefor. We may refuse repair services if the product is not fully paid for, if you have any unpaid overdue invoices or the tools has been reported as stolen or lost. Hilti reserves the right to verify ownership before accepting any repair request.

8.4. Repair process and costs: You must approve all quotations for the repair before Hilti commences any repair work. For out-of-warranty repair requests, you will owe us the costs for the work performed, including diagnostics and disassembly, regardless of whether the repair is ultimately carried out. These costs are detailed in our quotation. If you decide not to proceed with the repair after receiving the quotation or do not respond to the provided quotation within 7 calendar days, despite a final reminder sent, Hilti may, at its discretion, return the tool in a disassembled state or after notifying you, dispose of the tool after your written confirmation or failure to respond to the notification within 7 calendar days, provided a final reminder has been sent. Hilti reserves the right to invoice you for any costs incurred during the disassembly and inspection process, including transportation costs. When disposing the tool, any parts eligible for reuse becomes Hilti's ownership and Hilti is entitled to reuse those under these GTC. If the service cost exceeds the estimate stated on the quotation, you will be asked whether you wish to proceed with the repair at the higher price. In such case, the repair will only take place once you give your consent.

8.5. Parts and exchanges:. Hilti may perform repairs using new or reconditioned (refurbished) parts, provided that such parts meet Hilti's applicable quality, functional and safety standards. If a product cannot be repaired (including for technical or economic reasons), Hilti may, at its sole discretion, provide a replacement product instead. Any replacement product may be new or reconditioned (refurbished), provided that it meets Hilti's applicable quality, functional and safety standards. The use of reconditioned parts and the provision of reconditioned replacement products shall fully comply with Hilti's quality standards and shall be deemed appropriate performance of Hilti's obligations under these Terms, including for warranty and paid repair services. A replacement product may be a different physical unit and may have a different serial number. These replacement products may show signs of wear, but they always meet Hilti's relevant safety and quality standards. The provision of a replacement product fully satisfies Hilti's obligations in respect of the repair or warranty claim. Any removed parts and any replaced or exchanged product shall become Hilti's property. Any replacement parts or replacement product provided shall become the customer's property. Any product, component or part that becomes Hilti's property under these GTC, including through replacement, exchange, trade in, surrender, non-collection or disposal authorisation, may be inspected, dismantled, tested, sorted, reconditioned, reused, or otherwise processed by or on behalf of Hilti. Any repair or exchange service requested or accepted by you constitutes a contractual service provided by Hilti, and you agree to these terms. Any products for which the warranty period has expired cannot be returned to Hilti. For repairs carried out outside the warranty referred to in section 7, the Customer has the right to object to the use of reconditioned parts by notifying Hilti via Customer Service.

8.6. Collection and disposal: We may keep the item you provided us for repair, until repair costs are paid. If you fail to pick up a repaired item within 14 calendar days of notification, we may charge for storage in amount of 100 CZK per day or send it to you at your expense. If the item is not collected within 1 month after notification, Hilti may dispose (sell it, donate it, remove parts, or scrap it) of it after providing a final written notice with adequate grace period. Hilti will remit any proceeds from the sale, after deducting reasonable expenses, to the Customer.

8.7. End-of-life handling: where Hilti may accept your products by taking them back outside a repair or exchange request, title to such products transfers to Hilti upon acceptance, unless otherwise agreed in writing.

8.8. Calibration Services: Whenever you request Hilti's calibration services to test and re-adjust your Hilti measuring tools, Hilti Calibration Certificates are based on the manufacturer's standards and correspond to a declaration of conformity according to ISO/IEC 17050-1.

9. Liability and indemnification

9.1. Liability: Hilti shall not be liable for any indirect or consequential damages or for any loss of profit arising out of or in connection with the sale, use, or inability to use the goods or services; such damages include, in particular, damages resulting from delay in delivery, business interruption, loss of productivity, loss of turnover, loss of goodwill, or loss of use. This shall apply even where such damages were caused, in whole or in part, by Hilti's negligence. The customer agrees to bear full responsibility for the use of the product and to plan their activities in such a way that reasonable delays in delivery or service provision do not affect them.

9.2. Indemnity: You agree to be liable for and indemnify us against all claims, damages, and costs resulting from your breach of these GTC, any law, regulation, nationally accepted standard or code, or from your misuse of the products and services - MO Specific: Regional Legal to adjust this clause to the extent required upon local law requirements. You are solely responsible for compliance with all applicable laws, regulations, and codes regarding the handling, use, transportation, or disposal of products.

9.3. Limitation of liability: Hilti's aggregate liability to the Customer under or in connection with any individual contract, including liability for damages, default interest, contractual penalties and any other claims of the Customer, regardless of their legal basis, shall be limited to an amount equal to the purchase price of the goods or services (excluding VAT) to which the claim relates; where a contract comprises multiple items, this limitation shall apply separately to each item. The Parties consider this limitation to be reasonable in view of the nature, price and customary purpose of the goods and services. The exclusions and limitations of liability set out in this Article 9 shall not apply to the extent that they cannot be validly agreed under applicable law, in particular in the case of harm caused to a natural person with respect to their inherent rights, or damage caused intentionally or through gross negligence (Section 2898 of the Czech Civil Code).

10. Intellectual Property

All intellectual property related to the products and services, or created during the contract, is exclusively property of Hilti Corporation, Hilti's parent company. These GTC do not give you the right or license to use Hilti Corporation's intellectual property. All logos, trade names, and trademarks used by Hilti are Hilti Corporation's property. You are only allowed to use the same with Hilti Corporation's written permission. Hilti does not provide any warranty that any use of the products and services sold by Hilti does not infringe upon any right of a third party and Hilti shall not be liable for such infringement.

11. Data Protection

Where you use Hilti platforms (e.g., Hilti ON!Track, Hilti Online for your Hilti Customer Account), usage and data processing on those are governed by their respective terms. You can find our Privacy Policy on our website www.hilti.cz Information on data generated by the use of our products and related services, access to such data, how requests under the EU Data Act can be made, and Hilti Corporation's use of non-personal data is set out in the Data Act Notice available at [https://www.hilti.to/data-act], which forms part of these GTC.

12. Confidentiality

All trade secrets and technical, commercial, and financial information (including pricing) shared by Hilti are confidential unless publicly known. Do not share this information with third parties without our consent or use it for any other purpose than agreed in writing. If required by law to share the information, you must – where legally permitted - inform us in writing immediately first about the need and circumstances, and we will discuss how to protect Hilti's interests.

13. Suspension and termination

Upon the occurrence of any of the following events: (a) the Customer materially breaches any of its contractual obligations, including failure to make payments when due (i.e. an invoice remains unpaid for at least 10 calendar days after its due date); (b) enforcement proceedings or any other execution proceedings are commenced against the Customer's assets; (c) insolvency proceedings are initiated against the Customer or the Customer is declared insolvent; or (d) the Customer enters into liquidation, Hilti shall be entitled, without prejudice to any other rights or remedies, to withdraw, in whole or in part, from any contract between Hilti and the Customer. Termination (withdrawal) shall become effective upon delivery of a written notice to the Customer and shall not affect any rights or claims of Hilti that have arisen prior to the effective date of termination. Alternatively, Hilti may suspend further deliveries of products and/or the supply of services by written notice, unless immediate action is required to protect Hilti's interests. Hilti will promptly refund any payments made for undelivered products or services.

14. Miscellaneous

14.1. These GTC, along with any specific written agreements, constitute the entire agreement between us, replacing all previous agreements or communications related to the subject of these GTC.

14.2. Additions or amendments to these GTC must be made in writing.

14.3. Hilti reserves the right to amend the GTC at any time and will publish the new version on the website www.hilti.cz no later than 30 days before they come into effect.
